Jill DeMarco	Montclair
Jonna Davis	Teaneck
Molly McKenney	Upper Saddle River
Ethan Galvin	West Caldwell
Janet Dunn	Westwood
Margaret Rose O'Keefe	BCCLS

Overview: Works on issues related to adult services, including professional development, programming and collection management. Incorporates aspects of CD&R and eBCCLS related to adult services, notably recommending adult eContent for purchase.

Charges for 2018:

1. Staff development and training focusing on collection development, reader's advisory, customer service, and other Adult Services basics. This should include developing training programs for key basic skills that are reproducible (with freedom to incorporate changes to account for new developments or personalities of presenters) for future committees or even reproducible at the library level.
2. Collection development: provide regular weeding and selection tips, including e-book recommendations and possibly streaming and other online options for members to consider.
3. Assist with the selection of adult materials for the eBCCLS core collection.
4. Develop and maintain a repository of high-quality adult programs and vendors that libraries can draw on, including ideas for staff-led programs that allow libraries to develop cost-effective in-house programs.

Overview: Provides public-facing advocacy that supports increased awareness of library issues, including sustainability and public funding. Combines the previous Friends, Trustee Development, Government Relations and PR committees into a single committee that can better coordinate all aspects of outward-facing advocacy.

Charges for 2018:

1. Work with Scholarship Committee to host Annual Friends Breakfast in October.
2. Work with eBCCLS to promote new eContent platform.
3. Keep members informed of opportunities for advocacy on local and state levels. Evaluate possible library advocacy day in 2019.
4. Work with NJLA to advocate for the restoration of full funding of per capita state aid.
5. Document best practices on how to successfully advocate among trustees, friends and elected officials for increased funding under the Johnson Legislation passed last year.
 - a. 1st session, focus on trustees: What is the Johnson Legislation and should your library pursue a referendum campaign to increase funding?
 - b. 2nd session, focus on the process: Understand two paths to get your referendum on the ballot, through Municipal sponsorship or through signatures. How do you approach elected officials to get it sponsored? How do you determine what is the best approach for your community and if you go the route of signatures, how do you go about that?
 - c. 3rd session, focus on friends: Once you have your referendum on the ballot, how do you conduct an effective advocacy campaign that will win in your community? What can the library do? What is the role of advocates like the Friends? What is the most effective message? etc.
6. Distribute timely, relevant information related to the Library Construction Bond Act. Prepare an informational program with best practices to submit a winning grant application.
7. Research and present a program on fostering thriving Friends organizations that build and strengthen relationships with library board, director, staff and the public.
